

Wisconsin Office of Lt. Governor Statutory Duties

As of May 20, 2016

Summary

The Wisconsin lieutenant governor has one statutory duty.

Citations

Statutory duties of Lieutenant Governor as prescribed by Wisconsin Statutes (Wis. Stat.):

In addition to the duties prescribed for the office by the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin, the duties of the Lieutenant Governor are statutorily specified to include:

To serve on any commission, board, committee, or intergovernmental body as designated by the Governor (Wis. Stat. 14.34).

- END